Enclosure No

Sir,

I have the honor to state that I purchased six belts and badges for my orderlies when I was appointed Assistant Census Superintendent in Mysore. As I had to travel all over the State, I thought it necessary that the orderlies should have distinctive badges as Government peons. The expenditure was originally incurred in anticipation of the sanction of the Director of Statistics in Mysore, but he was informed of the fact immediately afterwards.

The belts and badges were delivered to the office of the Deputy Census Superintendent when I left the office in June 1901. Till recently, I was under the impression that the expenditure was within the powers of sanction of the Director of Statistics and that the articles had been paid for from the Census office. I found out only latterly that the expenditure required the sanction of Government and had not therefore been adjusted. The Contractor is now pressing me for payment, I adjusted the bill myself and enclose the receipt obtained from him.

2. As the belts and badges were necessary during my tour and as the articles were handed over to the Census office so far back as in June 1901 and have been there ever since, I request that you will kindly obtain the sanction of Government for the expenditure.

3. The original bill of the Contractor was sent to the Census office. A duplicate copy will be submitted, ~~if~~ if necessary.

I have the honor to be,

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Sd/- K. Chaudhary

Assistant Commissioner and formerly Asst Census Superd.
in Mysore.
